

Friday, 28 November 2008

River Tees gets a new 'resident'

A 23,000-tonne container vessel has arrived on the River Tees.

Cala Portofino berthed at the Able UK port in Middlesbrough due to the impact of the global

The 23,000-tonne Cala Portofino has arrived on Teesside economic slowdown on shipping operations.

She will be joined by her sister ship the Cala Positano, currently en route from Brazil, next week.

Both ships, which are 185m long, are expected to remain on the River Tees, close to Middlesbrough Football Club's Riverside Stadium, for some time.

The ships are operated by Costa Container Lines.